Glossary

Asset-backed securities (ABS)
A financial security which is 'backed' with assets such as loans, credit card debts or leases. They give investors the opportunity to invest in a wide variety of income-generating assets.

Discount
When the market price of a security is thought to be less than its underlying value, it is said to be 'trading at a discount'. Within investment trusts, this is the amount by which the price per share of an investment trust is lower than the value of its underlying net asset value. The opposite of trading at a premium.

Duration
Duration can measure how long it takes (in years) for an investor to be repaid a bond's price by the bond's total cash flows. Duration can also measure the sensitivity of a bond's or fixed-income portfolio's price to changes in interest rates. The longer a bond's duration, the higher its sensitivity to changes in interest rates, and vice versa. 'Going short duration' refers to reducing the average duration of a portfolio, while 'going long duration' refers to extending a portfolio's average duration.

Future
A contract between two parties to buy or sell a tradable asset, such as shares, bonds, commodities or currencies, at a specified future date at a price agreed today. A future is a form of derivative.

High yield bond
A bond which has a lower credit rating below an investment grade bond. It is sometimes known as a sub-investment grade bond. These bonds usually carry a higher risk of the issuer defaulting on their payments, so they are typically issued with a higher coupon to compensate for the additional risk.

Mortgage-backed security (MBS)
A security which is secured (or 'backed') by a collection of mortgages. Investors receive periodic payments derived from the underlying mortgages, similar to coupons. Similar to an asset-backed security.

Option
A derivative instrument where one party pays/receives the total return of the underlying asset or market index, in exchange for payments typically linked to LIBOR.

Secured loan
A loan where the borrower has promised to give the lender certain assets if they fail to make repayments.

Tracking error
This measures how far a portfolio's actual performance differs from its benchmark index. The lower the number, the more closely it resembles the index.

WAM (Weighted Average Maturity)
The average time remaining until the maturity of assets in a portfolio.

Yield to worst
The lowest yield a bond with a special feature (such as a call option) can achieve provided the issuer does not default. When used to describe a portfolio, this statistic represents the weighted average across all the underlying bonds held.
