Subject to annual shareholder approval the Company has authority to issue new shares or sell shares from treasury to satisfy demand from shareholders without rights of pre-emption applying; this authority is limited to 10% of the shares in issue. The legal and regulatory regime to which the Company and the directors are subject ensures the fair treatment of investors. The Listing Rules require that the Company treats all shareholders of the same class of shares equally. These include a duty upon each director to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company. Purchase of shares in the Company by an investor does not give rise to any contractual relationship between the investor and the Company. The liability of shareholders for the debts and other obligations of the Company is limited to the amount unpaid, if any, on the shares held by them.

Shareholders who are “Eligible Complainants” for the purposes of the FCA “Dispute Resolutions Complaints” rules (natural persons, micro-enterprises and certain charities or trustees of a trust) are able to refer any complaints against the Manager to the Financial Ombudsman Service (“FOS”) (further details of which are available at www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk). Additionally, shareholders may be eligible for compensation under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (“FSCS”) if they have claims against an FCA authorised service provider (including the Manager) which is in default. There are limits on the amount of compensation available. Further information about the FSCS is at www.fscs.org.uk. Key Risks

There are certain key risks which may arise from investment in the Company which include:

Market risk: The potential for change in market value to which the Company is exposed through movements in market prices as a result of change in conditions applicable to the whole market or individual investment and as regards derivatives, through movements in markets for derivatives or the underlying asset, currency, reference rate or index to which a derivative relates. This includes imperfect correlation between movements in the securities or currency on which a futures or options contract is based and movements in the securities or currencies in the Company.

Credit/counterparty risk: The risk of loss to which the Company could be exposed if a counterparty to a transaction fails to perform its contractual obligations. Such risk may be specific to a particular transaction or a more general default. For derivative instruments which are transacted over the counter on a bilateral basis there is a direct exposure to the counterparty transaction or a more general default. For derivative instruments which are transacted over the counter on a bilateral basis there is a direct exposure to the counterparty.

Liquidity risk: The risk to which the Company is exposed if either it has insufficient cash available to meet financial obligations resulting from its investment activities, or there is an inability to trade a particular position at the desired price which arises from the absence of a liquid market for a specific instrument at a particular time due to a lack of market depth or occurrence of a market disruption event.

Operational risk: The risk of direct or indirect losses resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people and systems and from external events.

The risk management process for the Company is designed to satisfy at least the minimum requirements of the AIFMD; associated European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") regulatory technical standards and guidelines; and relevant FCA regulations.

Investors are recommended to discuss all potential conflicts of interest and risks with their financial and legal advisors.

AIFMD Periodic Disclosures

The AIFM and the Company are required to make certain disclosures available to investors in accordance with the Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive ('AIFMD').

The periodic disclosures to investors are made below:

- information on the investment strategy, geographic and sector investment focus and principal stock exposures is included in the annual report;
- none of the Company's assets are subject to special arrangements arising from their illiquid nature;
- the annual report and note 13 to the accounts set out the risk profile and risk management systems in place. There have been no changes to the risk management systems in place in the period under review and no breaches of any of the risk limits set, with no breach expected;
- there are no new arrangements for managing the liquidity of the Company or any material changes to the liquidity management systems and procedures employed by the AIFM.

Historical performance data is available on the Company's website.

Leverage

In accordance with the AIFM Directive, the Company is required to make available to investors information in relation to its leverage. Leverage is considered in terms of the Company's overall exposure to financial or synthetic gearing and includes any method by which its exposure is increased whether through borrowing of cash or securities, foreign currency holdings, leverage embedded in derivative positions or by any other means. The use of leverage may significantly increase the market and counterparty risk of the Company through non-fully funded exposure to underlying markets or securities is expressed as the ratio between the total exposure of the Company and its net asset value such that if its exposure was equal to its net asset value, leverage would be disclosed as 100%; a calculated value above 100% means that the Company has leverage equal to the percentage amount above 100%. Exposure values are calculated by two methods, gross and commitment, as defined within the AIFMD.

Exposure under the gross method represents the aggregate of all the Company's exposures other than cash balances held in base currency; the commitment method takes into account the effect of different treatment of certain cash and cash equivalent items and of offsetting instruments between eligible assets to reflect netting and hedging arrangements in line with regulatory requirements.

Maximum leverage levels have been set by Janus Henderson as the AIFM and approved by the Board. These are in accordance with the maximum gearing allowed by the Company's Articles of Association.

The table below sets out the current maximum permitted limit and actual level of leverage for the Company as a percentage of its net asset value as at 31 August 2019:

Leverage	Gross method	Commitment method
Maximum limit	200%	200%
Actual level	106%	106%

There have been no breaches of the maximum level during the period and no changes to the maximum level of leverage employed by the Company. There is no right of re-use of collateral or any guarantees granted under the leveraging arrangement.

Changes to the information contained within the annual report in relation to any special arrangements in place; the maximum level of leverage which the Manager may employ on behalf of the Company; the right of use of collateral or any guarantee granted under any leveraging arrangement; or any change to the position in relation to any discharge of liability by the Depositary will be notified via a Regulatory Information Service without undue delay in accordance with the AIFMD.

AIFM Remuneration

The AIFMD Remuneration Code requires Janus Henderson Group plc, in its oversight of HIFL, to make relevant remuneration disclosures no later than six months following the end of each AIF's financial year. The disclosures must split remuneration between fixed and variable remuneration and must break down remuneration for categories of AIFMD Code Staff (defined as all staff whose professional activities have a material impact on the risk profiles of the AIFM or the AIFs it manages). The Janus Henderson Group plc Compensation Committee approves the list of AIFMD Code Staff annually. In addition, identified AIFMD Code Staff are notified of their status and the associated implications annually.

Remuneration policy

The Compensation Committee of Janus Henderson Group plc has established a remuneration policy, one of the guiding principles of which is to ensure that the remuneration of its employees is consistent with and promotes sound and effective risk management and does not encourage risk-taking which is inconsistent with the risk profiles, rules or instruments of incorporation of each AIFM and the AIFs they manage. This policy applies to both HIFL and the Company. A summary of the remuneration policy is set out in the annual report and accounts of Janus Henderson Group plc for the year ended 30 December 2018 and in the Janus Henderson Group plc regulatory Pillar 3 disclosures which can be found on www.janushenderson.com.

The aggregate total remuneration of the 1,949 employees either partly or fully involved in the activities of the Company for the year to 30 June 2019 was £819,000 of which £364,000 was fixed remuneration and £455,000 was variable remuneration. Remuneration has been apportioned between the provision of services to the Company and to other entities in the Janus Henderson Group.

The remuneration disclosed is only in respect of the provision of services to the Company for the year, rather than the total remuneration for the year – for this purpose, remuneration has been apportioned between the provision of services to the Company and to other entities in the Janus Henderson Group, as follows:

- in respect of performance fee incentives, 100% of any direct allocations of performance fees generated within the Company;
- in respect of fixed pay and annual/long term incentive bonuses:
 - where fixed pay is directly attributable to the Company (for example, fees for Board members), 100% of those fees;
 - for fund managers, pro-rated using the average AUM of the Company managed by the relevant fund manager (as a proportion of the total AUM managed by that individual) as a proxy;
 - for other individuals, pro-rated using the average AUM of the Company (as a proportion of the aggregate average AUM of Janus Henderson Group plc) as a proxy.

No attempt has been made to apportion time spent by individuals in support of the Company.

There are 121 AIFMD Code staff identified; 34 Senior Management and 87 Other Code staff. The aggregate total remuneration paid to the AIFMD Code staff for the Company's related activities was £514,000 of which £68,000 was paid to Senior Management (which includes the Janus Henderson Executive Committee, other Group Board members and the Company's Board of Directors), and £446,000 was paid to other AIFMD Code staff (which includes Fund Managers).
