Investment environment

- September proved to be a more challenging month for risk assets, with global equity markets adopting a more cautious tone.
- Investor sentiment was largely influenced by continued tensions in the Middle East, alongside a meaningful rise in government bond yields (and a corresponding fall in prices) as markets reassessed the outlook for interest rates and the possibility of further central bank monetary policy tightening over the coming year.
- These developments weighed on risk appetite and prompted a shift away from some of the stronger-performing areas of the market.
- Against this backdrop, global small-cap equities underperformed their larger-cap counterparts. US small caps were particularly weak, lagging international markets.
- While the near-term backdrop has become more volatile, economic activity remains broadly supportive and has continued to provide a constructive foundation for corporate earnings.

Portfolio review

The portfolio delivered broadly flat returns relative to the benchmark during September, with performance driven primarily by stock-specific developments. One of the largest positive contributors came from merger and acquisition (M&A) activity. Japanese real estate company Leopalace21 received a takeover approach at a premium of approximately 45%, generating strong returns for the portfolio. We also benefited from the announced merger between Qorvo and Skyworks, which resulted in a positive re-rating of our holding in Qorvo. Elsewhere, continued investment in data centre infrastructure supported strong performance from both Comfort Systems and Sterling Infrastructure, two holdings that we believe remain well positioned to benefit from the ongoing build-out of artificial intelligence (AI)-related infrastructure. Halozyme Therapeutics was another notable contributor. The company continued to expand the adoption of its ENHANZE drug delivery technology, which enables certain therapies to be administered via subcutaneous injection rather than intravenous infusion. This improves convenience for both patients and healthcare providers and is leading to new royalty opportunities as additional pharmaceutical companies adopt the platform.

On the negative side, FlatexDEGIRO detracted following an unexpected management change, which heightened investor concerns around governance. While we are monitoring developments carefully, we continue to assess the implications for the long-term investment case. We also had no position in Moderna, whose shares continued their strong rally following positive developments relating to its skin cancer programme. Given its market capitalisation, it is expected to leave our index at the next review. We also saw weaker performance from Hamilton Lane, as concerns surrounding private asset markets continued to weigh on sentiment. Frontdoor was another detractor, despite operational performance remaining solid, with investor concerns focused primarily on the challenges facing the US housing market in a higher interest rate environment.

Portfolio activity during the month was largely driven by our quarterly review process, resulting in several new additions. We initiated a position in Manhattan Associates, a provider of cloud-native supply chain and e-commerce software. The company benefits from strong customer retention rates and a competitive position within mission-critical software markets. We also added Koninklijke BAM Groep, which operates in the European construction market, and initiated a position in Cactus, a specialist supplier to the energy industry whose wellhead technologies have a strong reputation for reliability and safety. Within consumer discretionary, we established a position in Lovisa, the vertically integrated fashion jewellery retailer. We believe the company's capital-light business model, international expansion opportunities and attractive returns profile create the potential for long-term value creation. We also added several financial companies, including Bendigo and Adelaide Bank, Bank of East Asia and Esquire Financial. Esquire Financial is a specialist provider of banking services to the legal industry in the US and has developed a differentiated niche position within its market.

Manager outlook

Investor sentiment towards small-cap equities has weakened as bond yields have risen rapidly. While we recognise this concern, we believe the asset class remains well positioned, provided economies avoid a significant and prolonged monetary policy tightening cycle. Valuations across global small-cap markets appear attractive to us, both relative to history and compared with larger-cap equities. In addition, economic activity continues to appear resilient. Purchasing Managers' Indices (PMIs) in the US remain consistent with economic expansion, while manufacturing activity in Europe has also shown signs of improvement, despite an uncertain political backdrop. In this environment, we remain focused on identifying high-quality businesses with durable competitive advantages, strong returns on capital and attractive long-term opportunities.

Please consult your local sales representative and/or financial adviser if you have any queries. On 24 January 2025, the Janus Henderson Global Smaller Companies Fund changed its investment strategy. Past performance shown prior to this date was achieved under circumstances that no longer apply. As at 30 June 2026, Jonathan Coleman, Aaron Schaechterle, Ollie Beckett, Yunyoung Lee and Sat Duhra were appointed as named portfolio managers of the Global Smaller Companies strategy, alongside Nick Sheridan. This appointment formalises an established and productive collaboration that has been in place since the strategy's inception. This is a Luxembourg SICAV Fund, regulated by the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (CSSF). These are the views of the author at the time of publication and may differ from the views of other individuals/teams at Janus Henderson Investors. Any securities, funds, sectors or indices mentioned within this article do not constitute or form part of any offer or solicitation to buy or sell them. The information in this commentary does not qualify as an investment recommendation. Investment into the fund will acquire units/shares of the fund itself and not the underlying assets owned by the fund. Cash balances and exposures are based on settled and unsettled trades as at the reporting date.

Investment policy

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in shares (equities) and equity-related securities of smaller companies, in any industry, in any country. The Fund may also invest in other assets including cash and money market instruments. The Investment Manager may use derivatives (complex financial instruments) to reduce risk or to manage the Fund more efficiently. The Fund is actively managed with reference to the MSCI World Small Cap Index, which is broadly representative of the companies in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target and the level above which performance fees may be charged (if applicable). The Investment Manager has discretion to choose investments for the Fund with weightings different to the index or not in the index, but at times the Fund may hold investments similar to the index.

Investment strategy

The Investment Manager aims to deliver capital growth by investing in small companies listed globally. The Fund looks to identify good quality, but potentially undervalued stocks, driven by the belief that the level of real returns delivered depends on the initial price paid.

Fund specific risks

Shares can lose value rapidly, and typically involve higher risks than bonds or money market instruments. The value of your investment may fall as a result. Shares of small and mid-size companies can be more volatile than shares of larger companies, and at times it may be difficult to value or to sell shares at desired times and prices, increasing the risk of losses. Derivatives may be used with the aim of reducing risk or managing the portfolio more efficiently. However, this introduces other risks, in particular, that a derivative counterparty may not meet its contractual obligations. If the Fund holds assets in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund, or you invest in a share/unit class of a different currency to the Fund (unless hedged, i.e. seeks to mitigate exchange rate movements between the share/unit class currency and the base currency of the Fund), the value of your investment may be impacted by changes in exchange rates. When the Fund, or a share/unit class, seeks to mitigate exchange rate movements of a currency relative to the base currency (hedge), the hedging strategy itself may positively or negatively impact the value of the Fund due to differences in short-term interest rates between the currencies. Securities could become hard to value or to sell at a desired time and price, especially in extreme market conditions when asset prices may be falling, increasing the risk of investment losses. Losses could be incurred if a counterparty became unwilling or unable to meet its obligations, or as a result of failure or delay in operational processes or the failure of a third party provider. Investments in foreign securities may include additional risks, such as potential constraints on liquidity and repatriation of funds, macroeconomic risk, political risk, foreign exchange risk, tax risk, settlement risk as well as potential limitations on the availability of market information.
