Objectives and investment policy

The Sub-Fund aims to provide total return over the long term from a combination of income and capital growth by investing predominantly in an actively managed portfolio of mortgage-related fixed income instruments of varying maturities. The Bloomberg US Mortgage Backed Securities (MBS) Inde broadly representative of the investments which the Sub-Fund may make and is used for performance comparison purposes only. The Sub-Fund is actively managed and does not seek to replicate the composition or performance of an index. Under normal circumstances, the Sub-Fund will invest at least 80% of its net assets in a portfolio of mortgage-related fixed income instruments of varying maturities and at least 80% of its net assets in mortgage-related fixed income instruments, being MBS and CMOs, issued by the U.S. government and its agencies. Mortgage-related fixed income instruments include residential and commercial mortgage-backed securities ("MBS"), collateralized mortgage obligations ("CMOs"), stripped mortgage-backed securities, mortgage pass-through securities, credit risk transfer securities ("CRTs"), and To be Announced (or "TBA") commitments. Investments in mortgage-related fixed income instruments other than those issued by the U.S. government and its agencies will be limited to 10%. Included in this aggregate 10% limit are CRTs and non-agency CMOs. Investments in any other types of asset-backed securities will be limited to 10% of the Sub-Fund's net assets. This may include assets backed by car loans, credit cards, equipment leases and consumer loans. Investments in Reg-S and Rule 144A Securities will be limited to 20% of the Sub-Fund's net assets. In addition to its investments in mortgage-related fixed income instruments, the Sub-Fund will from time to time also invest in certain other fixed-income securities, typically fixed or floating rate grade corporate bonds and/or hold cash and cash-equivalents. The Sub-Fund will invest at least 80% in securities rated investment grade. The Sub-Fund may also invest in lower-rated securities The Sub-Fund invests only in U.S. dollar denominated securities. The Sub-Fund will not invest more than 10% of its Net Asset Value in Eligible Collective Investment Schemes. Derivatives- namely Treasury futures, interest rate swaps, interest rate options, swaptions and index credit default swaps - may be used for the purposes of hedging/risk reduction specifically interest rate, duration and credit risk. The Fund is neither an Article 8 nor an Article 9 fund for the purposes of SFDR.

This indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk and reward profile of the Share Class.

The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.

The lowest category (Category 1) does not mean 'risk free'.

The Share Class is rated 4 due to the nature of its investments and the frequency of price movement which include the following risks which may impact the value of the Share Class or expose it to losses.

- No capital protection: The value of your investment may go down as well as up and you may not get back the amount you invested.
- Liquidity risk: Lower liquidity means there are insufficient buyers or sellers to allow the Sub-Fund to sell or buy investments readily. Neither the Index provider nor the issuer make any representation or forecast on liquidity.

Active Management: Active management techniques that have worked well in normal market conditions could prove ineffective or negative for performance at other times.

Credit Risk: An issuer of a bond (or money market instrument) may become unable or unwilling to pay interest or repay capital. If this happens or the market perceives this may happen, the value of the bond will fall.

Interest Rates: When interest rates rise (or fall), the prices of different securities will be affected differently. In particular, bond values generally fall when interest rates rise (or are expected to rise). This risk is typically greater the longer the maturity of a bond investment.

Asset-Backed Securities: Asset-Backed Securities (ABS) and other forms of securitised investments may be subject to greater credit / default, liquidity, interest rate and prepayment and extension risks, compared to other investments such as government or corporate issued bonds, and this may negatively impact the realised return on investment in the securities.

Mortgage-Backed Securities: Mortgage-backed securities (MBS), non-agency mortgage-related securities, credit risk transfer securities, and TBA commitments involve specific risks. These include borrowers failing to make payments (credit risk), changes in interest rates affecting repayment timing, and market conditions that may make selling these investments harder.

County or Region: High exposure to a particular country or geographical region carries a higher level of risk than a more broadly diversified portfolio.

Derivatives: Derivatives may be used with the aim of reducing risk or managing the portfolio more efficiently. However, this introduces other risks, in particular, that a derivative counterparty may not meet its contractual obligations.

Liquidity: Securities could become hard to value or to sell at a desired time and price, especially in extreme market conditions when asset prices may be falling, increasing the risk of investment losses.

Counterparty and Operational Risks: Losses could be incurred if a counterparty became unwilling or unable to meet its obligations, or as a result of failure or delay in operational processes or the failure of a third party provider.
