INVESTORS

A sub fund of Janus Henderson Capital Funds plc

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Fund aims to generate positive, consistent returns on your investment above those that would be earned on cash deposits over time. The Fund focuses on investments worldwide (including countries that are still developing) in bonds and other debt securities (debt that is issued by a government or a company that can be bought and sold and which gives the right to receive income).

The Fund mainly invests in bonds and other debt securities which are rated investment grade (high quality), high-yield (below investment grade) or are unrated by ratings agencies. High-yield bonds are debt securities which are rated below investment grade by ratings agencies because of a higher risk of not being paid back, or if unrated, are of similar quality. High-yield bonds typically offer a higher income.

The Fund makes significant use of financial derivatives (complex financial instruments) with the aim of generating additional returns or income for the Fund, to reduce risk or to reduce costs within the portfolio.

The Fund may invest in other types of eligible investments which are disclosed in the Prospectus.

You may sell your shares generally daily (i.e. on a business day for the Fund).

This share class does not pay you an income but instead reinvests it to grow your capital.

Risk and Reward Profile

The category is calculated based on historical data and is based on price movements in the share class (volatility), and may not be a reliable indicator of future risk. The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.

The lowest category does not mean the investment is risk-free.

This share class is in category 2 because of rises and falls in its value in the past.

The risk category does not take into account the following risks of investing in this share class:

Component Fund: This fund is designed to be used only as one component of several in a diversified investment portfolio. Investors should consider carefully the proportion of their portfolio invested into this fund.

Investment Risk: The value of an investment and any income from it can go up or down, and the Fund may not achieve its investment objective. When you sell your shares they may be worth less than you paid for them.

Default Risk: An issuer of a bond (or money market instrument) may become unable or unwilling to pay interest or repay capital to the Fund. If this happens or the market perceives this may happen, the value of the bond will fall.

Interest Rates: When interest rates rise (or fall), the prices of different securities will be affected differently. In particular, bond values generally fall when interest rates rise. This risk is generally greater the longer the maturity of a bond investment.

Prepayment and Extension: Callable debt securities (securities whose issuers have the right to pay off the security's principal before the maturity date), such as ABS or MBS, can be impacted from prepayment or extension of maturity. The value of your investment may fall as a result.

Derivatives and Leverage: The Fund may use derivatives towards the aim of achieving its investment objective. This can result in 'leverage', which can magnify an investment outcome and gains or losses to the Fund may be greater than the cost of the derivative. Derivatives also introduce other risks, in particular, that a derivative counterparty may not meet its contractual obligations.

Exchange Rates: If the Fund holds assets in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund or you invest in a share class of a different currency to the Fund (unless 'hedged'), the value of your investment may be impacted by changes in exchange rates.

Currency Hedging: When the Fund, or a currency hedged share class of the Fund (with 'Hedged' in its name), seeks to mitigate (hedge) exchange rate movements of a currency relative to the Fund's base currency, the hedging strategy itself may create a positive or negative impact to the value of the Fund or share class due to differences in short-term interest rates between the currencies.

Liquidity: Securities within the Fund could become hard to value or to sell at a desired time and price, especially in extreme market conditions when asset prices may be falling, increasing the risk of investment losses.

For a more detailed explanation of risks, please refer to the "Risk Factors and Special Considerations" section of the Prospectus.
