Dear Shareholder,

RE: Notification of compulsory redemption of all remaining shares in the Janus Henderson INTECH Global Income Managed Volatility Fund

We are writing to you as a Shareholder in the Janus Henderson INTECH Global Income Managed Volatility Fund (the “Fund”), a sub-fund of the Company.

In accordance with the terms of Article 11(b) of the Articles of Association of the Company, the Directors of the Company have determined to compulsorily redeem all remaining shares of the Fund, and terminate the Fund, on 28 November 2018 (the “Compulsory Redemption Date”). Accordingly, all Shares held in any share class of the Fund as of the close of the regular trading session of the NYSE (normally 4:00pm, New York time, Monday through Friday) on 28 November 2018 will be compulsorily redeemed on such date. The Fund has been closed to further subscriptions.

Janus Capital International Limited, as investment adviser to the Company (the “Investment Adviser”), continuously monitors the Company’s sub-funds to assess whether they continue to meet client expectations and needs. The Investment Adviser has advised the Company that it has conducted a strategic review of the Fund and believes that the Net Asset Value (NAV) does not achieve the economies of scale in ongoing operating costs that make it economically viable. In light of this and having consulted with the Investment Adviser, the Directors believe that it is in the best interests of the Fund’s Shareholders that all remaining shares of the Fund be compulsorily redeemed and the Fund terminated.

The compulsory redemption of shares and termination of the Fund will be conducted in accordance with the terms of the Prospectus, the Articles of Association and Irish law. In accordance with the Prospectus and the Articles of Association, upon the compulsory redemption of all remaining shares of the Fund the assets available for distribution (after satisfaction of creditors’ claims) shall be distributed pro rata to the Shareholders in proportion to the number of the Shares held in the Fund.

Before investing in such other sub-fund, please ensure that you have read the Prospectus and the provisions relating to that sub-fund.
